EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Ronald R. Santucci on April 25, 2006.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1, line 1, after "pad", the phrase - -in combination with a pen- - has been added.

Claim 1, line 19, the article "and" has been deleted.

Claim 1, line 21, after "panel", the phrase - - and a pen is disposed in said hole - - has been added.

Claims 2-5 and 11, line 1, after "pad", the phrase - - in combination with a pen - - has been inserted.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

A review of applicant's arguments in amendment filed on March 14, 2006 and a review of the instant amended claims has convinced the examiner that the claims are allowable over the prior art of record. The prior art fails to teach or suggest a note pad in combination with a pen comprising the note pad having a stack of sheets, each sheet having a stub portion and an inscribing portion separated by a tear line, each sheet having repositionable adhesive on its bottom surface in the inscribing portion and adjacent the tear line; the stub portion having a binding adhesive on a side edge of the stack that is opposite the tear line; a panel having a bottom lateral portion that underlies the lowermost sheet of the pad, a side portion covering the binding adhesive side and a top lateral portion that overlies on said stub portion of an uppermost of the note sheets; and a pen receiving hole that extends through said stub portion and contains a pen disposed in said hole. Also, no evidentiary support could be provided to support the position that the claimed invention would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
